YOU ARE NOTIFIED THAT:

1. You are entitled to a lawyer in all proceedings in Juvenile Court. The Court will appoint a lawyer or designate a county public defender or joint county public defender to provide legal representation if you cannot afford a lawyer and meet certain requirements.
2. Court Bailiff, who may be reached at telephone number 419-668-1616 Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., who is the employee designated by the Court to arrange for the prompt appointment of counsel for indigent persons. If you wish to be represented by a lawyer in this proceeding but believe you cannot afford one, you should contact this person as soon as possible.
3. If the Court makes an adjudication of dependency, neglect or abuse (finds that the allegations contained in the attached complaint are true) this may result in:

The granting of permanent custody, which permanently takes from the parent all parental rights, duties, privileges, and obligations, including the right to consent to an adoption of the child(ren).

(If the Court finds that any of the following situations exist:[1] the child, because of physical, mental, or psychological problems or needs is unable to function in a family-like setting, and must remain in residential or institutional care; [2] the parents of the child have significant physical, mental, or psychological problems and are unable to care for the child because of those problems, adoption is not in the best interest of the child, and the child retains significant and positive relationship with a parent or relative; [3] the child is sixteen years of age or older, has been counseled on the permanent placement options available to him/her, is unwilling to accept or unable to adapt to a permanent placement, and is in an agency program preparing him/her for independent living, the issuance of an order for long-term foster care, which will cause removal of the child in long-term foster care, without permanently terminating parental rights.

An order of temporary custody, which will cause removal of the child from the parent's physical and legal custody until the court terminates the order or permanently divests the parents of all parental rights.

An order of protective supervision which will permit the child to remain in the parent's physical and legal custody subject to any conditions and limitations the court prescribes.

ANY PERSON SUMMONED TO APPEAR BEFORE THE COURT WHO FAILS TO DO SO MAY BE PUNISHED AS IN OTHER CASES FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT, AND MAY LOSE VALUABLE RIGHTS AS A RESULT OF SAID FAILURE TO APPEAR.

Attorney for Mother, Jodi Hicks

Now comes Attorney Linda Fritz-Gasteier, counsel for Jodi Hicks, and hereby submits mother's Amended Motion for Visitation in order to clarify mother's pro see motion filed June 27, 2025. Mother is requesting that the court order issued October 29, 2021 in this matter be modified to include a specific visitation schedule. The order reads now, "It is further ordered that children's mother is granted supervised visitation with said children supervised by the legal custodians or persons approved by the legal custodians at locations approved by the legal custodians as arranged between mother and the legal custodians."

Mother states that she has had very little visitation with the children since the prior order was issued, with the exception of perhaps 3 visits in 2023 or 2024. Mother believes that pattern will not change unless there is a specific time schedule ordered which takes some of the discretion for visitation away from the legal custodians. The relationship between mother and legal custodians is strained and the parties are unable to arrange visits on their own. Therefore, mother is requesting that a time for visits be delineated, as well as a different supervisor other than the legal custodians be approved by the court, which mother believes will also help facilitate visitation.

Respectfully submitted,
